

State of Oklahoma
Department of Agriculture, Food, and Forestry

Kevin Stitt
Governor

Blayne Arthur
Secretary of Agriculture

There has been a trend in submitting information electronically, and there are several versions of electronic CVIs available that can help you increase productivity and efficiency. The following table lists the current versions available along with the important differences between them. For more information, please contact our office at (405) 522-6141.

Name	Pros	Cons	Unique Features
1. AgView (Formerly known as mCVI) Access http://agview.com to register. The free app can be downloaded to device by searching for the application in the following stores: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Apple iTunes: AgView 2. Google Play Store: AgView 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Automatically submits to state of origin and state of destination • Online dashboard allows for desktop submission of CVIs • Default Addresses can be uploaded into Dashboard to be used when issuing CVIs • Ability to upload animal information via CSV file • Create custom Disease Certification Statements or Weather Acclimation Statements • Dashboard saves all submitted CVIs 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • $3/CVI fee • Issuing veterinarian no longer receives submitted CVI via email. Must login to online Dashboard to access CVIs 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Staff can create CVI and assign DVM to review, sign, and submit • CVI can be submitted in the field without internet connectivity. • Available for use on Android or iOS devices and can be used on desktop computer via online Dashboard • No software to purchase
2. State's eCVI Contact ODAFF for more info	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Does not require internet • Fillable PDF form • No fee involved 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Veterinarian must email iCVI within 7 days of issuance to state of origin 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Password protected digital signature • No software to purchase
3. GlobalVetLink http://globalvetlink.com	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Automatically submits to state of origin, state of destination, and issuing veterinarian • Online database that will save certificates for 7 years • Template ability to auto populate fields with owner and animal information 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Subscribe for monthly access fee • Annual account maintenance fee • ~$4/certificate 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Upload digital pictures • Offers EIA test charts and Veterinary Feed Directives • Clients can access completed test charts and certificates online • Integrate client records from vet practice software programs
4. VSPS https://vsapps.aphis.usda.gov/vsps	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Automatically submits to state of origin and state of destination • Ability to create address book to auto populate addresses • Ability to upload animal information via CSV file • No fee involved 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Requires USDA e-authentication • VSPS is only available online 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Upload digital pictures • Offers EIA test charts • Create Animal Address book to auto populate animals • No software to purchase